new & interesting news...

Jono Productions, Inc. always has unique and interesting projects in the works... most recently we created an event for HBO to launch the documentary THINKING XXX by the renowned celebrity photographer and film director Timothy Greenfield Sanders. This upscale event, held on the rooftop of the Hotel Rivington was hosted by Adult Film Star SAVANNA SAMSON and attended by 30 internationally famous porn stars and hundreds of guests obtaining major press coverage.

Other projects now include the launch of TLC's new fashion program COVER SHOT which includes a full media tour for the show's host FREDERIQUE VAN DER WAL and hot New York Fashion Week Party.

In addition, Jono Productions, Inc has been retained by TLC to organize all press for their highly successful show WHAT NOT TO WEAR while working closely with the show's hosts STACY LONDON and CLINTON KELLY.

Italian fashion label REPLAY has retained our services to produce a fashion show and in-store party. All the models in this show are the gals from the GOTHAM CITY ROLLER DERBY LEAGUE. Imagine a catwalk in the middle of the street where the models are on roller skates! HOT HOT HOT and the fashion show is open to the public! The party of course is by special invite.

More news to come!
